

WHICH COURSE OPTION IS RIGHT FOR YOU?

	WHAT IT MEANS...	PERFECT FOR SOMEONE WHO...	WHAT ELSE YOU SHOULD KNOW...
ON-CAMPUS	Meet in-person on one of our 7 campuses.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Learns best in a traditional classroom structure > Prefers live interaction with instructor and classmates > Seeks less technology-required learning > Wants access to tutoring and the library before or after class 	Face coverings are not required, but encouraged.
ONLINE (asynchronous)	Meet deadlines, review course content, and complete projects and assignments on your own time.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Will make a proactive connection with instructor and resources for help when needed > Knows they are a highly independent and self-motivated learner > Manages their time well > Has access to a personal computer connected to the internet or can come to campus to use an MTC computer > Has completed a prior online class successfully (recommended) 	Completion of the Virtual Backpack is required to register for an “I” section (100% online) course.
VIRTUAL (synchronous)	Meet live on regular days and times using web conferencing software like Zoom.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Needs a more traditional classroom structure > Seeks interaction with instructor and classmates, but doesn’t necessarily have to be in the classroom > Has access to a personal computer connected to the internet or can come to campus to use an MTC computer > Maintains the ability to stay focused without sitting in a classroom > Has a quiet learning space off campus they can use (learning spaces are also available on campus) 	Completion of the Virtual Backpack is not required, but recommended to help you understand how to use D2L.
HYBRID	Meet in a variety of ways – review days and times when registering to accommodate your schedule.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> > Needs a more traditional classroom structure to be successful > Knows they are a highly independent and self-motivated learner > Manages their time well > Has access to a personal computer connected to the internet or can come to campus to use an MTC computer > Has completed a prior online class successfully (recommended) 	Completion of the Virtual Backpack is not required, but recommended to help you understand how to use D2L.